

MALABAR
CHRISTIAN
COLLEGE

Calicut 673 001, Kerala

POST-GRADUATE & RESEARCH DEPARTMENT OF HISTORY

The Department of History started functioning from the very inception of the college in 1909. In 1956, the double-main programme was introduced combining the disciplines of History and Economics. Later by 1990, the Double- Main programme was bifurcated and the B. A History main programme was offered. In the year 1995, the department was upgraded to Post Graduate level and in 2015 the University of Calicut conferred the status of Research Department. The focus area of research is Modern History of Kerala with emphasis on the socio-economic scenario of Malabar under the Madras Presidency. At present, the department offers FYUG (with History Honours/Research), Post-Graduation (MA) in History and Ph.D. Research in History

MULTI DISCIPLINARY COURSES

- Comprehensive Understanding of Society and Culture: The programmes enable students to develop a deep understanding of historical processes, social transformations, cultural traditions, and political developments across different periods and regions.
- Development of Critical Thinking and Analytical Skills: Through the study of historical sources, interpretations, and debates, students acquire analytical abilities, critical reasoning, problem-solving skills, and the capacity to evaluate evidence objectively.
- Interdisciplinary Learning Opportunities: The Major, Minor, and Multidisciplinary courses in History encourage students to connect historical knowledge with subjects such as Political Science, Economics, Sociology, Literature, Archaeology, and Cultural Studies, thereby broadening their academic perspective.
- Enhancement of Research and Communication Skills: The programmes train students in research methodology, academic writing, documentation, presentation, and communication skills, preparing them for higher studies, competitive examinations, and professional careers.
- Career and Employability Advantages: The study of History equips students with transferable skills valuable in diverse fields including teaching, research, civil services, journalism, archaeology, heritage management, tourism, archives, media, law, and public administration.

DEPARTMENT HIGHLIGHTS & ACHIEVEMENTS

• Unique Departmental Archive and Historical Resources

Unlike many departments and colleges, the Department of History maintains its own archival resources, enabling students and researchers to engage directly with historical documents, records, and materials related to regional and institutional history.

• Historically Significant Location in the Heart of Kozhikode

Situated at the centre of Kozhikode, the department offers students a unique opportunity to experience the living interface between colonial Malabar and the contemporary urban landscape. The historic legacy of Malabar Christian College itself enriches the academic environment and historical imagination of learners.

• Academic Excellence and Competitive Achievements

Students of the department have consistently qualified in national-level examinations such as UGC-NET and CUCET, reflecting the department's academic strength and commitment to higher learning and research.

• Strong and Supportive Alumni Network

The department possesses a vibrant alumni network comprising academicians, teachers, civil servants, researchers, journalists, and professionals in diverse fields, contributing significantly to the academic and professional growth of students

• Student-Friendly Academic Environment

The department is known for its warm, inclusive, and intellectually engaging atmosphere. Supportive faculty members maintain close academic interaction with students, encouraging mentorship, discussion, creativity, and holistic development.
